

Dear colleagues,

I am pleased to announce Barry Oh has accepted the position of controller and assistant vice chancellor of Accounting & Fiscal Services effective May 15, 2023. This position manages the departments of Accounting and Fiscal Services, as well as overseeing Procurement Services.

Barry has been with UCI since 2020 and has previously served in this interim role since March 2023 in addition to Jan.-Sept. of 2021. Barry is a certified public accountant and earned his MBA from the USC Marshall School of Business. He is an alumnus of UCLA where he graduated with a B.A. in economics.

I am grateful to the search committee, led by Rick Coulon, for their hard work and contribution to the search process.

A recruitment will be conducted to replace Barry's previous role of associate controller.

Please join me in congratulating Barry on his new role.

Sincerely,

Mary Lou D. Ortiz

Chief Financial Officer

Vice Chancellor, Finance and Administration
