

Dear A&BS Employees,

As we continue to evolve Administrative & Business Services and coordinate efforts to improve processes, I am pleased to announce that Jen Swann, Integrated Systems Development Manager, will oversee information technology efforts for our organization effective July 15, 2017 and will report to Rick Coulon, Associate Vice Chancellor.

Jen will relocate to Aldrich Hall and will begin work on revamping our A&BS website and lead A&BS in the OIT A&BS IT Steering Committee. Jen will also evaluate our technology needs, client interfaces, and find ways to innovate and design technology to better serve the needs of our constituents.

Additionally, Margie Ikerd-Gyorgy, Assistant Director of Human Resources, will partner with each unit's HR representative and serve as our HR central contact point for topics related to employee and labor relations, talent acquisition, compensation and classification, benefits, etc., effective July 24, 2017 and will report to David Ott, Special Assistant and Project Manager.

Please join me in congratulating Jen and Margie in their new roles.

Sincerely,

Ronald S. Cortez, JD, MA
Vice Chancellor
