Dear DFA employees,

California Higher Education Collaborative (CHEC) is hosting a virtual conference on October 6 – 7, 2021. I am pleased to announce DFA centrally funded 50 individual registrations. When registering, use the "Individual Registration" option and enter code HQ914KCU (remember to seek supervisor approval before registering). Your registration also includes the option to attend three pre-conference workshops taking place each Thursday leading up to the conference (space is limited so register quickly).

This conference convenes administrative leaders and professionals from the three segments of California public higher education (UC, CSU, and CCC) to encourage the exchange of ideas and practices aimed to improve administrative performance, service, and outcomes. Leveraging value, innovative approaches, effective communication, and resiliency are among the conference topics this year.

Contact checinfo@calstate.edu for any issues with your account or registration.

Thank you for your continued commitment to your personal and professional development.

With appreciation,

Ronald S. Cortez, JD, MA (Pronouns: he/him/his)

Vice Chancellor, Division of Finance and Administration
